

$150,000,000 IS J. J. HILL'S GIFT AT WEDDING FETE

Distribution to Great Northern Stockholders as Celebration.

Great Northern Railway stockholders today received from James J. Hill the great sum of $150,000,000, said to have been turned over at this time in honor of the wedding of Mr. Hill's daughter, at St. Paul, Minn., to-night. Many years ago Mr. Hill, in his own name and on his own responsibility, acquired control of the railway company in the Lake Superior region, and later leased this land to the United States Steel Corporation on terms very advantageous to the railroad stockholders. In making known the details of this transaction Mr. Hill said there are 1,000,000 shares of Great Northern stock outstanding, and that each of these will receive a share of the Lake Superior Company, Limited, in whose name the ore lands have for some time been held. The three sons of Mr. Hill, Louis V. James N. and Walter J., will be trustees for the Great Northern shareholders. By the Steel Trust lease, the ore lands will, in all, bring in $200,000,000. In no year can the trust mine out less than 50,000 tons of ore at $1.50 a ton. This equality is to be increased each year. The action of Mr. Hill, in face of the fact that he could have kept the whole ore property for himself, is looked upon as a generous and unselfish act in the history of high finance and industrial speculation. The friends of the old man declare it is the greatest present or dividend which was ever made in a corporation, and that it is a most fitting wedding celebration.

RUM, NOT MONEY, MADE THE MARE GO

Cabman's Steed Balked on Broadway, but St. Louis Fare Knew Just What to Do.

William Dooley, of St. Louis, knows all about balking on Broadway, and his knowledge does not stop with mere man, as he demonstrated early to-day when a mare drawing a cab in which he was riding with a woman balked and held the fort for twenty minutes. The cabman used his whip and his most moving profanity without avail. Then Dooley took a hand. "That mare wants a drink. This is thirty-fifth and Broadway. See! That horse is dry. And so saying, the St. Louis scientist got out and rubbed half a pint of red rum on the animal's nose, after which the mare went ahead with alacrity.

'SHAKESPEARIAN COP' IS BACK ON OLD JOB

Sergt. Tims Takes Up Old
Task Blithely After Reinstatement.

The early morning platoon in the West Twentieth Street Station to-day discovered that they would receive their orders from Sergeant Oliver Tims, who is known as the "Shakespearean Cop," and who was a few days ago reinstated by Commissioner Bingham after a long fight in the courts. The sergeant went through the routine of turning out men just as if he had not been absent a day.

After the policemen had left the house, the majority of them, first congratulating him on his return to his old precinct, he was asked how it seemed to be back again. His reply was: "Absence from occupation is not rest; a mind quite vacant is a mind distressed." Then laughingly he said: "You will have to accuse Shakespeare for that." During his absence the sergeant said he had read all the works of Shakespeare that he had not read before, and also looked over other books. In speaking of the general condition of the city he remarked: "The job is just the same. The people drink just as much booze as usual, and I will have them brought in here just as before. It is a gay old town, but not as gay as it was when I went into the department."

Sergeant Tims joined the department thirty years ago and has been sergeant for thirty-four years. For eighteen years he was in the Tenderloin station. In May, 1905, he was retired by former Commissioner McAdoo because of a report of the surgeons, who stated that he was physically unfit for duty.

TOOK MANY JEWELS, LEFT MANY OTHERS

Police Mystified by Robbery
Committed at South
Orange Home.

Mystery surrounds the stealing last Sunday of jewels valued at $2,000 from a bedroom in the home of Mrs. Thomas J. Seely, of No. 34 Centre street, South Orange, N. J. The family and servants were in the house at the time. The thief left several hundred dollars' worth of pearls, watches and pins untouched. The jewelry taken belonged to Mrs. Laurence von Dollen, a daughter of Mrs. Seely, and was taken from her room. The articles were on a dresser at 4:15 P. M. Sunday, when Mrs. von Dollen dressed for dinner. When she returned to the room a three-stone diamond ring, valued at $200, another diamond ring, with $700, an opal ring, worth $300, a diamond and emerald jewel, valued at $300, an opal pin and a diamond engagement ring, bearing this mark: "L. M. V. D. to M. B. S. April 24, '04," were gone. The police were notified and detectives put on the case by the burglary insurance companies, but thus far the theft of the jewels remains a mystery. No trace of an intruder was found and none in the house appeared open to suspicion.

Up to Date.
(From the Cleveland Plain Dealer.)
"That man Jewkes is the most energetic playwright I ever knew."
"What is he up to now?"
"He is just finishing the third act of a lurid melodrama, in which a live volcano will be the star."

WON'T FIX BAIL IN MIDWIFE CASE.

Counsel Says He Will Get an Order
From the Supreme Court to Compel It.

When the case of Mrs. Wilhelmina Bokhart, the Ninety-third street midwife, charged with baby-farming, was called this morning in Centre Street Court, Assistant District Attorney Pinchot and Attorney S. J. Dickheiser asked Magistrate Walsh for a postponement until Nov. 27. This was agreed to, and Dickheiser asked that bail be fixed.

"I won't fix bail in this case," said the Magistrate. Dickheiser left court vowing to go to the Supreme Court and get an order compelling the Magistrate to fix bail.

Diplomacy.
(From the Philadelphia Bulletin.)
"We're writing Andrew Carnegie, asking him to give our church an organ."
"I understand he's stopped giving away organs."
"I think we'll get one, however. We used phonetic spelling throughout."

LADY PICKETS IN A STREET BATTLE

Moral Suasion Failed to Stop
Four Sisters From Work and Harsher Means Were Tried.

A crowd of girl pickets of the Ladies' Waistmakers' Association, on strike in Pincus Bros' shirt waist factory, No. 181 Montrose avenue, Williamsburg, waylaid the four Schendel sisters—Mary, Ida, Zelma and Theresa—to-day and exhausted moral suasion upon them, laying on of hands. As a result Maudie Eastern, of No. 14 McKibben street and Jennie Ziff, of No. 201 Bayard street, are locked up in the Stung street station on a charge of assault and conspiracy, and the pickets are looking for half a dozen other members of the union.

Parlor Talk.
(From the Philadelphia Press.)
"Good morning!" said the piano stool. "By the way," observed that you started to smoke last night when Miss Yerner was entertaining Mr. Sloman."
"Yes," replied the parlor lamp. "I saw she was waiting for an excuse to turn me down."

There are about sixty-five girls employed ordinarily in the shirt-waist factory controlled by the Pincus Bros. Animated by various grievances, some of them decided to form a union, and twenty-three members last Monday organized a walk-out. The twenty-four Schendel sisters remained loyal to Pincus Bros. They said they had a mother to support and needed the money.

On their way to work to-day from their home at No. 181 Montrose avenue they were confronted by the lady pickets of the union—Ida and Zelma Schendel lost considerable of their apparel. Mary lost some hair and Theresa sustained damages of a general nature. Policemen Michaels, of the Stung street station, attracted by the screams of the four sisters, intervened upon the argument and made two arrests.

The strike is still on.

S.S.S. HAS BEEN CURING CATARRH FOR FORTY YEARS

S. S. S. is not a new treatment for Catarrh; it has been curing the disease for more than forty years, and so universally successful has it been that it has won an established place in the confidence of the people as a remedy for this disgusting, troublesome and dangerous disorder.

Catarrh is not merely a stubborn or protracted cold, as some people seem to think; it is a deep-seated and serious blood disorder, more generally affecting the body than any other disease. Hardly any part of the system is exempt from the trouble; it attacks the head, throat, stomach, bowels, kidneys, bladder, lungs and other members, and its effects often completely break down and undermine the entire constitution.

This catarrhal condition is usually first noticed after the contracting of a cold. The inner skin and tissues of the body become irritated and inflamed and secrete an unhealthy matter, which is absorbed into the blood; this foreign matter corrupts and diseases the circulation, and as the blood goes to every nook and corner of the body the poisonous matter with which it is loaded is deposited to set up inflammation and disease of the different members. Catarrh has more disgusting and annoying symptoms than any other trouble. There is a constant buzzing noise in the ears; a watery discharge from the nostrils, headaches and pains in the eyes, stringy, filthy matter drops back into the throat, requiring continual hawking and spitting, the breath has an offensive odor, slight fever often accompanies the disorder, gradually the entire blood supply becomes tainted and diseased and the system completely disordered and upset. After awhile the kidneys and bladder become affected, chronic Dyspepsia or Catarrh of the stomach develops, and the disease settles in some vital place, generally the lungs, because of the constant passage of poisoned blood through them, and Catarrh terminates in consumption, a hopeless and fatal disease.

Catarrh is usually worse in Winter, because of the cold and dampness and suddenly changing temperature, but it is in no sense a disease dependent on climatic conditions for its development. Neither is it a trouble to be cured with sprays, washes, inhalations, etc.; these merely relieve the reflex symptoms for awhile, but they are fanned into existence again at the next exposure to unfavorable weather.

As Catarrh is a deep-seated blood-disease the very best constitutional treatment is required to effect a cure. S. S. S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers, and is therefore the remedy best fitted for the work of removing the cause and permanently curing the trouble. Forty years of successful service have proven the worth of this great medicine in the treatment of Catarrh. S. S. S. is peculiarly suited as a remedy for this disease. It is made entirely of healing, cleansing extracts and juices of roots, herbs and barks without the least addition of mineral medicines. S. S. S. goes down into the blood and removes the catarrhal matter and poison, and its gentle acting vegetable properties strengthen and repair the diseased membranes and tissues so that when the cause has been removed the entire system is left in a state of perfect health. S. S. S. also tones up the stomach and digestion, and acts as a fine tonic to the entire system. S. S. S. has been curing Catarrh for more than forty years, and what it has done in the past is a guarantee of what it will do in the future. It is not an experiment, but a real blood purifier tested by time, for blood diseases like Catarrh. Write for our book which contains information about Catarrh, and ask for any medical advice you desire. No charge for either

CURED FORTY YEARS AGO.

During the Civil War I contracted Catarrh and suffered terribly with it. It was so bad that I had lost my hearing, nose of taste, as well as being nearly blind. I had tried various medicines and specialists spending a large sum of money on them, but with no perceptible results. One day I was driving along the road when I found one of your little pamphlets. I took it home and read it carefully. I decided that it fitted my case exactly, so I abandoned all other remedies and doctors, and began using your S. S. S. I took several bottles, when much to my joy I found myself a well man. All my senses were fully recovered, and I am happy to relate that I have never had the slightest return of the ailment. I am now 75 years old and enjoy good health for my age. I cheerfully and gratefully recommend S. S. S. as the remedy that cured me of Catarrh.
